Donald Brenner

Program Director, Financial Planning & Analysis Council
The Conference Board

Don has over 36 years of professional experience with PwC. His focus has been serving retail and consumer, industrial products and healthcare clients. Don has conducted numerous mergers and acquisition reviews assisting companies in identifying operating, financial and tax issues and their effects on the value of a company being offered for sale. Don has extensive experience with human resource concerns, risk management, information systems, tax structuring and post merger integration issues both domestically and internationally. He has significant experience with purchase price adjustment exercises. He has assisted clients with complex technical accounting and reporting matters and has been involved with numerous debt and equity offerings.

Don is also a consultant in PwC's National office where he specializes in SEC matters.

Don prides himself as being proactive in identifying emerging accounting and reporting issues and having an open collaborative dialogue with client management and audit committees to provide value and avoid surprises.
