

2022 Policy Agenda Check-up

We Must Defeat the Pandemic and Restore the Nation's Health and Rebuild Fiscal Health

Despite Omicron, the near-term outlook for the US economy is promising. But to maintain its strength, the nation must address these threats to public and fiscal health:

PUBLIC HEALTH

- Vaccination
- Testing
- Research
- Health care workforce
- Strategic National Stockpile
- Protective equipment
- Regulatory relief
- International cooperation

FISCAL HEALTH

- Budget and debt
- Infrastructure
- Technology
- Internet access
- Cybersecurity
- Supply chains and trade
- Education and training
- Immigration
- Climate
