

The Conference Board Policy Watch

China's Influence on American Prosperity and Global Economic Leadership

May 2, 2019

Some of the critical questions and issues we will be answering today

- How has the Chinese economy evolved over recent decades? Is it “liberalizing?” How has China’s leadership changed the nation’s economic course?
- How strong is China’s economy, in human and natural resources?
- What is the nature of China’s leadership – the government, the army, the Communist party?
- How important is the prospect of domestic political dissent in China?
- What are China’s geopolitical objectives, and do they clash with the nation’s economic aims?
- Does China have low-wage, low-cost competitor economies in the developing world?
